Baby Days

What is Baby Days?

It is a drop-in session providing advice and support for parents/carers of babies under the age of one. Each week a different health topic will be discussed to meet the needs of your developing child.

What can it offer you and your child?

- The opportunity to discuss any concerns with a health visitor, staff nurse or nursery nurse.
- You can gain information and advice about your child's development and family health issues.
- Weighing is available for babies.
- Advice and support with health-related topics e.g. skin care.
- A chance to find out about other Sunderland Children's Centre activities and services.

What are the benefits for you and your child?

- Your child and the rest of your family are likely to be healthier.
- It can make life easier by supporting you as a new parent/carer.
- The chance to meet other parents/carers with babies, make new friends and support each other.
- Helps you to establish good routines around feeding and sleeping.

For more information about Baby Days and when it is running, please contact your local Sunderland Children's Centre – details overleaf.
