

Getting involved with planning services

How do I get involved?

Getting involved with planning services through parents' groups?

Parents' groups provide an opportunity for you to get involved in planning services at Sunderland Children's Centres. By joining a parents' group you can have a say on how services can be improved.

What can it offer you and your family?

- The chance to plan services around the needs of the family.
- Access to information about Sunderland Children's Centre services.
- An opportunity to meet new people and make friends.

What are the benefits for you and your family?

- Having a voice in the planning of services.
- Improves the health and well-being of the family.
- Increases your confidence and self esteem.
- Improves future job prospects.
- Develops new skills and knowledge.
- Improves social skills.

For more information about Parents' Groups and when they meet, please contact your local Sunderland Children's Centre – details overleaf.
